

MMSN Documentary Show

As they scaled the snowy peak with "no margin for error, no helicopter rescue and no 999", disaster struck.

In sub-zero temperatures, the odds were against them.

The story of two British climbers who stared death in the face while climbing a treacherous peak in the Peruvian Andes, Touching The Void is a gripping tale of ordinary men coping with extraordinary circumstances.

Touching the Void

IMDB rating 8.0/10; 5 wins and 7 nominations

Best Documentary, Best film, Best Director

"Not just for mountaineers but for anyone who wonders what it would be like to be in quite possibly the most horrendous situation they can imagine."

"Superhuman feat of endurance"

Date: 2067 Poush 14 WEDNESDAY

Venue: Basic Science Building

Show Time: 4:15pm SHARP

Length: 106 minutes

Organised by Mountain Medicine Society of Nepal (MMSN)

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

FREE of COST